

New River College News

Edition 4
March 2018

Welcome to the latest edition of New River College News at the end of a very busy Spring Term.

We've had a great half term with loads of really exciting projects taking place at Elthorne Road. Students created their news bulletin for this year's BBC News Day, a group of keen drama students braved the cold on a visit to Shakespeare's Globe theatre, and an inter-school football tournament has been planned by our new Student Council representative. Find out more in this packed edition of NRC News!

Visit to the Globe Theatre

In February we had the opportunity to visit Shakespeare's Globe Theatre on the South Bank to see a special performance of 'Much Ado About Nothing' as part of the Bronze Arts Award. We had a great day out and really enjoyed the play. All students involved were brilliant audience members in this interactive show. Kai told us, "It was fun. I liked the superhero costumes best." Lucy said, "I was really proud of the students. They showed real passion for Shakespeare."

Making the News at Elthorne Road

This term in English, students have been working on the BBC News School Report project, learning how to gather, create and present the news. The students have all had a lot of fun exploring their local community and being real life journalists. This work also contributed to the Bronze Arts Award project and is now on-line to see on our school website.

Kai - Reporting the News

Student Council News

Our new Student Council Rep, Kai, recently ran a survey at Elthorne gathering student views on school with some interesting results. The vast majority said they either loved or liked school and voted Food Technology their favourite subject. Students also asked for an inter-school football match which we'll be trying to arrange for the summer term.

Extra Curricular News

Elthorne Gardens - Gardening club is now back on every Friday lunchtime. We look forward to a great harvest and plenty of summer colour with your amazing help. All welcome!

English Club - runs every Monday lunchtime. Students are working on a writing project at the moment and can earn Dojo points for participating, as well as improving their skills. Plus students who attend on a regular basis qualify for a cinema trip to celebrate their success! Be in it to win it!
